

ENTRY RULES

The Northwest Florida Fair Fine Arts Show is open to living artists from Northwest Florida. All work must be original, (no giclée prints or kits) entirely the work of the entrant, and completed within the last three years. Artwork that has won a cash award in a previous Arts & Design Society sponsored exhibit is not eligible. All mediums of fine artwork will be accepted. Installations are not eligible for entry. (Students should refer to Student Entry Rules.)

STANDARDS

Two-dimensional works must be properly framed, securely wired and ready for hanging – WORK WILL NOT BE HUNG IF NOT SECURE. No saw tooth or center hangers allowed. Works larger than 46" in either direction will be charged as two entries. Individual pieces of work completed in a series will count separately. Use of plexiglas is recommended. Artwork may not exceed 50 lbs in weight. Artists must bring stands for sculptures. The Arts & Design Society reserves the right to refuse any work considered unsuitable for a family-oriented venue.

NOTICE TO ENTRANTS

All works must remain on display until the night the Fair closes. A 10% commission will be charged for works sold. The artist is responsible for Florida sales tax on any sales. Artist removing their work before closing time will not be permitted to enter any Arts & Design Society sponsored art shows for the next five years.

LIABILITY

All reasonable care will be taken in handling and displaying works entered. Security will be provided through 12:00 noon Monday, October 1st. The Northwest Florida Fair and the Arts & Design Society will not be liable for any claim, loss or damage.

AWARDS

Cash prizes will be awarded to Best in Show, First, Second, and Third Places and the recipient of the ADSO Award. Student Awards: See Student Entry Rules.

ENTRY FEES (Non-refundable)

Adults (18 and over) $ 30.00. Artists may enter up to five (5) pieces of artwork. Students must use student entry form. Make checks payable to The Arts & Design Society (ADSO), and submit entry fee with artwork and completed entry form at the Fairgrounds on Registration day. Make payment by check or cash.
