ART WEEK CLASSES 2023

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4
9:30-1 1:30 AM

Faux Tiles: Pam & Tuny

Students will make a faux tile on a canvas and, if time, on cards, using spackle and acrylic paints. Easy, fun, and different!

1:00-3:00 PM

Clay Bowls: Karen Gladstone

Students will line plaster molds with cloth, put clay on top, and shape it as they wish. Will then dry the clay with our hairdryers, glaze it with a design, and ADSO will fire it!

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6
9:30-1 1:30 AM

Clay Christmas Ornaments: Sherry Cooler

Students will make beautiful two-sided Christmas ornaments.

9:30-1 1:30 AM

Alcohol Inks: Carolyn Williams

Students will try several small projects using vibrant alcohol inks!

1:00-3:00 PM

Printed Birds: Hanna Joensuu

We start with printing sheets of heavy stock using a fun printing method and printing blocks. When dry and fixed we will create decorative birds to hang up.

1:00-3:00 PM

Watercolor on Canvas: Carolyn Williams

Students will paint on pre-prepped canvas after a demo of preparing canvas. Results are impressive!

6:30-8:30 PM

Clay Octopi: Marcy Eady

Students will form and glaze fine clay octopi, which ADSO will fire.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7
9:30-1 1:30 AM

Encaustics: Helen Harris

Students will learn to work with wax using an iron & stylus and make at least 3 cards which will be put in a card holder complete with envelope.

1:00-3:00 PM

Wire Wrap:

Teddie Ciudad-Real

Students will learn how to wrap a stone with a simple wrap and will learn about the necessary tools for wrapping stones and will be able to pick a stone.

1:00-3:00 PM

Collaged Sketchbooks:

Renee Broxson

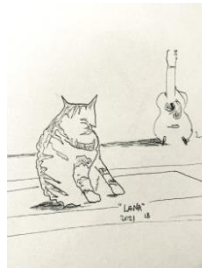

Every artist needs a sketchbook! Make yours really special with a collaged cover!

6:30-8:30 PM

Still Life for Movers and Shakers: Loren Boyer

Students will be shown alternate ways to illustrate arranged objects. Pen and ink techniques will give the artists new tools to draw with confidence.

6:30-8:30 PM

Canvas Quotations:

Hannah Flynn

Do you have a favorite saying, encouraging word or mantra? Using a canvas panel, alphabet stamps, metallic foils and more, learn to express those words in an artful way!

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8
9:30-1 1:30 AM

Abstract Expressionist Fiber Art: Kathy Simpson

Inspiration: Henri Matisse and his cut-outs. Cutting and fusing cotton textiles of varying color and design to assemble gestural forms will be our focus.

1:00-3:00 PM

Paper Cut Silhouettes: Helen Harris

The art of cutting a design on black paper in reverse with an Xacto knife. White paper and a black mat will finish the piece. Bring ideas or photos.

1:00-3:00 PM

Palette Knife Painting: Pat Z. Roberts

Express yourself with acrylic paints and a palette knife to create gorgeous flowers!

6:30-8:30 PM

Altered Altoid Tin Magic: Hannah Flynn

Create a whole world within the cozy confines of an Altoid tin. Choose your favorite style or theme and use mixed media to make your pocket-sized vision a reality!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9
9:30-1 1:30 AM

Found Object Collage: Rick Otoupalik

Explore the creative process with found objects. Students will paint a canvas to which they'll attach a primary or focus object or object, in a minimalist style. Bring an object or objects that would stand out as your focal point.

1:00-3:00 PM

Adventures with Liquid Acrylics: Sharon James

Learn how to use Golden fluid acrylics like watercolor. We will use a multimedia approach. Tissue paper, salt, splatter. Also brushes, toothpicks, Q tips. Great fun!

6:30-8:30 PM

Acrylic Painting: Pat Z. Roberts

Learn acrylic techniques to create a gorgeous starlit night with a gnarled tree!
